The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday May 9 to Tuesday May 12. 1713

St. James's, May 10.

THE following Addreſs from the Univerſity of Oxford, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Reverend Dr. Gardiner, Warden of All-Souls, and Vice-Chancellor of the Univerſity, and ſeveral of the Heads of Houſes and Proctors, together with the Rt. Hon. William Bromley, Eſq; Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, and Sir William Whitlock, their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, their Chancellor, accompanied by the Biſhops of Durham, Winchester, and Hereford, and divers of the Nobility and Gentry, who had been formerly of that Univerſity.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters and Scholars of the Univerſity of Oxford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE have had many Occaſions of Congratulating Your Majeſty, upon the wonderful Succeſs of Your Arms; but the Fruits of Victory ſtill appearing, after every Advantage, at the ſame Diſtance from us, our Hearts were never filled with ſuch entire Joy and Satisfaction as at this Time, when, by the Goodneſs of God proſpering Your wiſe Councils and unwearied Endeavours, the long deſired Bleſſing of Peace is happily procur'd for us.

We can now with Pleaſure look back on the many Difficulties which have attended Your Majeſty's Adminiſtration at Home, and Your Conduct Abroad; when all the Contrivances to obſtruct Your Majeſty's Glorious Deſigns, ſerve only to ſhew, with what Uprightneſs and Wiſdom they were form'd, with what Reſolution and Vigour they have been executed.

The Regard Your Majeſty has had for the ſeveral Intereſts of all Your Allies, the many Advantages Your Majeſty has obtain'd for Your own Subjects, and the Care You have taken to Eſtabliſh the future Happineſs of Your Kingdoms, by ſecuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and by maintaining a perfect Friendſhip with the Houſe of Hanover, are Subjects upon which all Your Majeſty's Loyal and Affectionate People will ſtrive to excel each other, in Expreſſions of Admiration, Joy and Gratitude: But we of this Place are in a more peculiar manner affected with the Proſpect of having the Arts of Peace Cultivated with greater Application and Succeſs. We are entertain'd with the pleaſing Expectation, of ſeeing Vertue and Learning continue to flouriſh under the Influences of Your Majeſty's Pious Example, and Gracious Encouragement: So that we promiſe our Selves, there will never be wanting thoſe amongſt us, who will be able and ready to confute the Cavils of Ignorant but Inſolent Men; to aſſert the juſt Rights of Monarchy, and to defend the Eternal Truths of GOD and Religion, in oppoſition to ſuch as ſhall dare to Blaſpheme Things Sacred, ſpeak Evil of Dignities, and propagate Opinions tending to the Overthrow of all Religion and Government. Nor will we altogether deſpair, but that from hence ſome Genius may ariſe, who ſhall perpetuate the Glories of Your Majeſty's Reign, with the ſame Exactneſs of Truth, with the ſame Juſtneſs of Reflection and Sublimity of Style, with which the Calamities of the Beſt of Your Majeſty's Royal Anceſtors have been recorded by the beſt of Hiſtorians.

May GOD, on whoſe Providence Your Majeſty depends, continue to Protect and Proſper You thro' the whole Courſe of a long Reign; defeating the Hopes of thoſe, who are ſuch Enemies to their Country, as to deſire a Popiſh, or to be in haſte for Any Succeſſor: May Your Majeſty be ſerv'd with the like Ability and Fidelity, in the Execution of all Your Excellent Purpoſes for promoting the Intereſt and Welfare of this Church and Nation, as You have been in carrying on this important Affair of Peace; and may the Accompliſhment of them meet with the due Returns of Loyalty and Gratitude, from all Your People.

To which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to give the following moſt Gracious Anſwer.

THIS Addreſs from My Ever-Loyal Univerſity is very Acceptable.

I Thank You for taking this Occaſion of the Publick Peace, to expreſs Your Concern for Our Holy Religion.

I doubt not of Your continuing to promote Principles of true Religion and Loyalty; and You may be aſſured of my Favour and Protection.

The following Addreſs from the County of Derby, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Curzon and Godfrey Clerke, Eſqrs; Knights of the Shire for the ſaid County; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Scarſdale, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County aforeſaid.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Derby, aſſembled on the 14th of April, 1713.

IT is but very lately that we had the Honour to approach Your Sacred Perſon with our ſincere and humbleſt Thanks for the bright Proſpect You gave us of the happy Peace we now enjoy; but Time as well as Words muſt fail us to expreſs our Gratitude as we ought, for that mighty Bleſſing You have now enrich'd us with.

A Peace ſo extenſively great in all its Circumſtances, ſo agreeable to Your Majeſty's Honour, ſo conducing to Your Subjects future, as well as preſent Happineſs, by a vaſt enlargement of our Trade and Commerce, as has raiſed Your Kingdoms Glory to ſuch an exalted Pitch as Britain never yet could boaſt of.

How glorious were the Motives that firſt engaged Your Majeſty in this bloody and expenſive War, to vindicate Your own Honour, to reſcue Europe from the impending Dangers 'twas then threat'ned with, and to ſettle the Ballance of Power in that juſt Equilibrium You have now brought it to.

And when by an amazing Series of Succeſs, You was juſt entring into the Enemy's Country, and had given him thoſe frightful Apprehenſions the Allies themſelves once too juſtly had; then admirably Judging thoſe glorious Ends Your Majeſty had in View were happily obtained; to give a Check to Your Victories in their full Career, to ſtop the bleeding Wounds of Europe, and reinſtate her in a general happy Peace, muſt more aggrandize and embalm Your Name, and make Your Character ſhine brighter in future Story, than if You had, like the formidable Heroes of Old, conquered many other Kingdoms to enlarge Your own.

How will the Nations round us admire and envy our Happineſs, in being governed by a Queen, who, next to Religion, makes Her Subjects Good, Her chiefeſt Care?

How can we enough extol Your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom, in Your Choice of the ableſt Miniſters, who ſhew they have no Deſign, but Your Glory and Your Kingdoms Welfare?

And how muſt now that frightful Fantom, Faction, hide her loathſome Head, and be aſhamed for endeavouring to obſtruct Your Majeſty's perfecting this great and good Work?

And now that God, who has ſo richly bleſt Your Majeſty with Wiſdom and Honour above any of Your Royal Progenitors, may likewiſe add length of Days to Your Majeſty, and after an happy Reign here, Crown You with immortal Peace and Glory hereafterr, are the inceſſant Prayers of, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and obedient Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the County of Carmarthen, was Preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Thomas Powell, Bart. their Repreſentative in Parliament; accompanied by Sir Thomas Stepney and Sir Edward Manſel, Baronets, with ſeveral other Gentlemen of the ſaid County, who all had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand: being Introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Deputy Lieutenants, and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Carmarthen, aſſembled at the Great Seſſions held for the ſaid County, April. 16. 1713.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE do our ſelves the Honour, in the humbleſt manner, to lay at your Royal Feet our juſt and ſincere Acknowledgments of your unweary'd Vigilance and continual Efforts for the Welfare and Felicity of your People, during the whole courſe of your moſt auſpicious Reign; but the ſtupendous Diligence and invincible Steadineſs with which you have purſu'd the great Work of Peace (at length ſo happily accompliſh'd) call for our louder Thanks: and we earneſtly beg your Majeſty to believe our Gratitude can be inferior only to the unparallel'd Goodneſs that demands that Tribute.

We heartily congratulate your Majeſty on this happy Event of your Negotiations, by which you have procur'd an indelible Honour to your own Royal Name, great and unexpected Advantages to your Subjects, and the neceſſary Security to your Allies. It was with Tranſport we beheld the Eyes of all Europe fix'd on our Queen, the ſhining Mediatrix of ſo deſirable a Peace.

We have now the Happineſs, not only to ſee an End put to the moſt heavy War that either we or our Anceſtors ever felt; but alſo to find new ways open'd to the repairing our exhauſted Fortunes, and raiſing us again to a flouriſhing Condition. The formidable Union of France and Spain gives us no longer any melancholly Apprehenſions, ſince we are ſatisfied the Meaſures your Majeſty has taken to divert that impending Fate, are as effectual as 'tis poſſible for humane Underſtanding to ſuggeſt; nor did thoſe Powers ever dread your Arms more than they now admire your Wiſdom.

'Twas a Work reſerv'd by Heaven for you, Madam, to unite your own Kingdoms at home, and divide thoſe abroad in their ſeveral Intereſts that might diſturb their Tranquility.

The moſt virulent Oppoſitions contriv'd to defeat your pious Endeavours, have only been able to retard, not overthrow your glorious Ends; they had indeed been unſurmountable to any but your Majeſty, who with Reſolutions highly Chriſtian, was determined even to force a Bleſſing on the Diſcontented and Unthankful. Your Miniſters, Madam, have executed your Pleaſure with the moſt exemplary Fidelity, and the wiſeſt Conduct. And may your Throne be always ſurrounded with ſuch Patriots, whoſe Loyalty to your Majeſty, Affection to our Country, and Abilities for Affairs of the firſt Importance, render them (next your Royal Self) the Delight of your People, and at once the Terror and Wonder of your Enemies.

We are moſt heartily to thank your Majeſty, that you have not only given us a Peace, which we deſir'd with much Impatience, but entail'd its happy Effects on our Poſterity, by the care you have been pleas'd to take, that your Crown may deſcend, as our Law has determined, on the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, the only Hopes of theſe Proteſtant Iſlands, when your unwilling Subjects ſhall be oblig'd to reſign your Majeſty to thoſe bliſsful Regions which are to be the Portion of the Peace-makers. We are; Great Madam, your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Stamford, was Preſented to Her Majeſty by the Hon. Charles Cecil and the Hon. Charles Bertie, Repreſentatives for the ſaid Corporation; being Introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Capital Burgeſſes, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Stamford in the County of Lincoln.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the happy Concluſion of the Peace, and at the ſame time to expreſs our moſt dutiful Acknowledgments to Your Majeſty for Your great Goodneſs and Wiſdom in Undertaking, Carrying-on, and Perfecting this glorious Work.

The tender Affection which Your Majeſty hath ſhewn for Your People ever ſince Your happy Acceſſion to the Throne, and the generous Care and Aſſiſtance You have conſtantly afforded Your Allies, make it ſeem very ſtrange that any Perſons could miſtruſt or oppoſe Your Majeſty's Conduct in putting an end to ſo long and burthenſome a War: But ſince they ſee that Your Majeſty's ſuperiour Wiſdom hath overcome all Difficulties, even thoſe contrived to obſtruct the General Peace, they will have but little Reaſon, for the future, to hope for Succeſs from any Oppoſition they can make to Your wiſe and ſteddy Counſels.

As the future Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms (next under the Providence of God) depends upon the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover, ſo we are very ſenſible that Your Majeſty's Intereſts are inſeparable from thoſe of that Illuſtrious Family; and whoever attempts to divide them (let the Pretences be diſguis'd with the greateſt Skill) muſt be Enemies to both, and prefer the Cunning of a Faction to the Quiet and Safety of their own Country.

May Your Majesty long Live and Reign over a Dutiful and Loyal People. For our parts, we will make it our constant Endeavour to manifest our Thankfulness to Your Majesty for the many Benefits we enjoy under Your mild and wise Government, by a chearful Obedience to Your Majesty, and an unanimous Resolution of opposing all Faction and Party-Rage whatsoever, which may be spirited up to disquiet the Minds of Your Subjects; and do assure Your Majesty, that no groundless Jealousies or Fears, which may be affected by Men of private Designs, shall lessen the absolute Reliance we have upon Your Goodness and Wisdom, for any thing Your Majesty shall judge proper to be done for the Benefit and Advantage of Your People.

The following Address from the City of Canterbury, was Presented to Her Majesty by the Mayor, Recorder, Chamberlain, and Sheriff of the said City; accompanied by their Representatives in Parliament, and several other Gentlemen: being Introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, Common-Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the City of Canterbury.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, have often had the Honour to present our humble Addresses of Congratulation upon the many great and glorious Victories obtained by Your Majesty's Forces during the War, hoping that those Advantages over our Enemies, would in due time procure for us a happy Peace.

That distant Prospect of Peace was very agreeable to us; and as it drew nearer, and Preliminary Terms were offer'd, and the Treaty for Peace was set on foot, it still appeared more desirable.

But now all the Difficulties of the Treaty are surmounted, and notwithstanding the Artifices and Insinuations of malicious and ill-designing Men to obstruct it, the Peace is concluded upon such Terms as are satisfactory to Your Majesty, on whose Wisdom and Goodness we rely. Our Hearts are filled with Joy; and with entire Satisfaction we most humbly and heartily congratulate the Accomplishment of so difficult, so great and glorious a Work.

We are now delivered not only from our Enemies, but from our very Fears: All Suggestions of Danger from Foreign Power or a Popish Successor, must now cease; or will appear as false and groundless as they are impious and malicious; Your Majesty having not only taken Care for our Defence and Security, but for Establishing the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover.

We return our humble and hearty Thanks to God and the Queen for these inestimable Blessings, and humbly pray that his Almighty Providence, which has so signally appeared in giving Success to Your Arms, and has now Crowned all Your Victories with a glorious Peace, will continue to bless these Kingdoms, by giving Your Majesty a long, peaceful, and happy Reign over us; and that all Your People may be united in a dutiful and conscientious Obedience to Your Majesty, and with grateful Hearts acknowledge the Happiness they enjoy under the Government of the best of Queens.

The following Address from Haverford-West, was Presented by John Laugharne, Esq; their Representative in Parliament; being Introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of Your Majesty's ancient and Loyal Corporation of the Town and County of Haverford-West.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE cannot sufficiently admire Your Majesty's Goodness, nor express our Thanks in Terms suitable to the Tenderness You have shewn for the Welfare of Your People, when we reflect on that Princely Care and firm Resolution You have taken to ease them of a long and expensive War, by procuring an honourable and lasting Peace, notwithstanding the many Difficulties and Obstructions that have attended the same.

We render Your Majesty the utmost of our Acknowledgments for the repeated Instances You have given us (particularly in Your late most gracious Speech from the Throne) of Your Royal Intention to secure to Posterity a Protestant Succession in the illustrious House of Hanover.

May Your Majesty still proceed to defeat the pernicious Attempts of Your Factious Subjects. May You always dissipate their pretended Jealousies, which nothing but an inveterate Disaffection to Your Person and Government could inspire. And, that Your Majesty may long live to see the Effects and enjoy the Blessings of that glorious Peace you have so nobly finished, shall be the constant Prayers of (may it please Your Majesty) Your Majesty's most Dutiful and most Obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir William Blackett, Bart. and William Wrightson, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and the rest of the Common-Council of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, in Common-Councel assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Subjects, beg leave to approach Your Royal Presence upon this joyful Occasion, and with grateful Hearts and sincere Affections, to Congratulate Your Majesty upon concluding and signing the Treaty for a General Peace, notwithstanding the many Difficulties contrived to obstruct it, and the scandalous Libels spread abroad to frighten and corrupt the Minds of your People. Madam, all that loyal Subjects could desire, might reasonably be expected from a Queen, whose glorious Successes in War, consummate Judgment in Councils, and above All, whose exemplary Piety and Goodness have rendred Her the Terror of Her Enemies, the Darling of Her Subjects, and Favourite of Heaven.

And now that Your Majesty hath perfected this great and glorious Work, we of this Corporation who have a Share in the publick Commerce, and have seen the Channels of Trade for many Years block'd up, doubt not but by the Blessing of God upon Your Majesty's indefatigable Endeavours and happy Success therein, to reap the Fruits of an honourable, glorious and lasting Peace, and to have our Holy Religion secured to Posterity, by the perfect Friendship which is between Your Majesty and the most Illustrious House of Hanover, notwithstanding the vain Attempts made by ill-designing Persons to separate Your Interests: And that Your Majesty may never want the Protection of Divine Providence whereupon You depend, nor the Loyalty and Affection of Your People, which You esteem as Your best Guarranty, and are justly entituled to: And that You may long live to Reign over us, and enjoy all the Blessings of that Peace which You have with so much Difficulty procured, shall ever be the hearty Prayers of us Your most obedient Subjects.

The

The following Addreſs from the City of Worceſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Martin Sandys, Eſq; their Town-Clerk, attended by their two Repreſentatives in Parliament, Henry Blake, Alderman of the ſaid City, and ſeveral others; being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer, and the Earl of Coventry.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of the City of Worceſter, in Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

AS we lately return'd our humble and hearty Thanks for Your Majeſty's pious Care and Tenderneſs for Your diſtreſſed People, by entring into a Treaty of Peace; ſo now, if poſſible, we would return our adequate Thanks for Your Conſummation of that great and religious Work. For as by War you check'd exorbitant Ambition on the one hand, ſo by Peace You have curb'd inſatiable Avarice on the other; put a ſtop to the farther unneceſſary Effuſion of Blood, and thereby gave Demonſtration of the Chriſtian, as well as Hero.

By War, Madam, You protected Emperors and States, You reduced mighty Kings for their ſakes; and, with the Blood and Treaſure of Your own People, ſaved the Liberties of unthankful Nations.

By Peace, and Your great Wiſdom and Felicity in chuſing Miniſters, You have not only reviv'd, but, beyond our hopes, enlarg'd our Trade: You have ſecured our Religion, as far as Your own bright Example and humane Laws can do it; as well by putting a ſtop to Occaſional Conformity, as by entailing Your Kingdoms upon the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, and thereby ſaved the Fortunes, Liberties and Religion of Your own Subjects. Theſe Things You have done for Us and Europe, and theſe Things we muſt tell with Pleaſure; for we had rather be called Enemies to and by the Factious, than Ungrateful to Your Majeſty, who for us hath brought ſuch mighty Things to paſs.

By reflecting upon which, we can't forbear heartily to wiſh (Oh that it was poſſible) that for the Good of Mankind in general, and for Your own Nations and Religion in particular, that either this Glorious Peace might be perpetual, or Your Majeſty Immortal.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Cliderow, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Edward Harvey and Thomas Lyſter, Eſqrs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Burgeſſes, and Freemen of Your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Borough of Cliderow, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

YOUR moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Recorder, Burgeſſes, and Freemen of Cliderow, do, with all Humility and Thankfulneſs, expreſs our Joy and Satisfaction in Your Majeſty's Wiſdom, and the happy Succeſs of Your Councils, in concluding a Peace, by which we can already obſerve Your Reign more Glorious, if poſſible, than in the Succeſs of Your Arms. 'Twas Wiſdom, not Force, that could defeat the ſecret and malicious Practices of reſtleſs Spirits, who have in vain attempted to deſtroy the Happineſs which they themſelves ha'n't yet gain'd Temper to enjoy.

That undeniable Evidence which Your Majeſty has given of a more remote Concern for our Happineſs in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, confounds the Impudence of thoſe who have provok'd Your Majeſty's Patience, to expreſs the want of ſome farther Law to reſtrain them.

We aſſure our ſelves, that we ſhall daily feel freſh Bleſſings ariſe from Peace; and that we ſhall Bleſs GOD in the Beauty of Holineſs, while we conſtantly pray that Your Majeſty may long continue a happy Sovereign to a People bleſſed with Your Reign.

The following Addreſs from the City of Exeter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Coppleſtone Warwick Bamfeild, Bar. and John Snell, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond.

To the QUEEN'S moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Exon, and of the High Sheriff of the ſaid City and County of Exon, and of the Grand Jury at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held at the Guildhall of the ſaid City, on Monday the 13th of April, 1713.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

AMongſt the many happy Opportunities which Providence hath afforded us, of approaching Your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, during Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, with our Congratulations, none was ever equal to the preſent Occaſion; for it is Peace alone which gives and ſecures to us all the Enjoyments which can be propoſed as Conſequents of a ſucceſsful War. It is therefore with the greateſt Satisfaction, that we ſee Your Majeſty Triumphant over the Difficulties contrived to obſtruct the General Peace; and the Quiet and Safety of Your Majeſty's Countries ſecured by a firm Eſtabliſhment of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

The Advantages Your Majeſty hath obtain'd for Your Subjects, make us eaſie under what remains of the Burden of a long and expenſive War; and ſince Your Majeſty's Princely Care and Wiſdom hath put it in our Power, to repair the Breaches which the late War hath made in our private Eſtates, by Cultivating the Arts of Peace, we reſolve to uſe our beſt Endeavours to that end and purpoſe, that we have it as effectually in our Power, as it is and ever ſhall be in our Wills and Inclinations, to ſerve Your Majeſty acceptably. We heartily Recognize Your Majeſty's Prerogative of making Peace as well as War, and, next to the Protection of the Divine Providence, we entirely depend upon Your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom and Prudence, and Your unwearied Care and Vigilance, aſſiſted by a Loyal, Wiſe and Faithful Miniſtry, whoſe Conſultations and Actions tend to the Glory of GOD, the Honour of Your Majeſty, and the Safety and Welfare of Your People.

May GOD long continue to us ſuch a Guaranty, and we want no other.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Boſiney, was Preſented to Her Majeſty by John Manley and Henry Campion Eſquires, their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Lanſdown.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Boſiney, Irevena, and Tintagell.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty, ges, the Ballance of Europe maintain'd, the Honour of the British Nation advanc'd, not by the Bruit of War, but by the more desirable End of it, an honorable Peace to your Own Kingdoms, and a just Satisfaction to all your Allies, are Blessings which, among many others, we enjoy, (next to the Divine Providence) are owing to your Majesty's consummate Wisdom and Goodness, and the faithful Administration of your Ministry, equal, in all respects, to the important Places they fill and adorn.

These not only being brought home to us, but continu'd upon the firmest humane Foundation down to our Posterity, call for the highest Tribute of Gratitude and Duty from us, and will be a joyful Theme of Praise and Veneration to our Childrens Children.

That your Majesty may long live to receive the utmost Returns of Duty and Gratitude from a People whom you have made thus happy, is the constant Prayer of your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Soak and Liberty of Peterborough, was Presented to Her Majesty by Charles Parker, Esq; one of the Representatives for the said City; being Introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

We the Custos Rotulorum, Justices of the Peace, Clerk of the Peace, High-Bayliff, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of the Liberty and Soak of Peterborough, in the County of Northampton, always truly Loyalists,

HUmbly presume to approach Your Sacred Majesty with our congratulatory Thanks for the happy Conclusion of so long wisht for a Peace; which, in Confidence of Your Studiousness of Your Peoples Goodness, and the consummate Wisdom of Your Council and Ministry, we doubt not, but as it is eminently beneficial to Your own Subjects, by extending and enlarging our Commerce (the staple Interest of Great Britain) in Foreign Countries; so it is honorable, safe, and advantageous to all your Allies, since the States-General (never regardless of their own Weal and Security) so unanimously fall in with Your glorious Measures and Conduct.

The perfect Friendship and right Understanding so wisely cultivated between Your Majesty and the Illustrious House of Hanover, by Your own excellent Management at Home, and the indefatigable Industry of Your Ministers Abroad, maugre all the invidious Whispers of a disappointed Party; evidently demonstrate Your pious Care for the perpetual Establishment of the Protestant Religion in these Realms.

Your Majesty's unparallel'd Goodness in placing Your own Ease and Happiness in the Safety of Your Subjects, must strictly engage all Hearts (not influenc'd by Faction, never at Peace and Unity even in it self) to an unfeign'd and steady Obedience both to Your Sacred Person and Government.

All these signal Blessings which we so happily possess under Your Majesty's auspicious and gentle Reign, demand our sincerest Prayers to the Almighty for a long Continuance of it; and that Your Majesty may live to reap the blessed Effects of all Your Religious Endeavours in the future Happiness and Quiet of all Your Subjects; and Late, Your self enjoy the promis'd Reward to Peacemakers.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Milan, May 2. N. S. The Duke of Savoy having followed the Example of the other Princes and States of Italy, in forbidding all Commerce with this Dutchy, we are now shut up on every side, except that of Switzerland, and are to continue so till the Government breaks off their Communication with Germany, which cannot be done till the Empress is gone from hence. Her Majesty hath appointed the 8th Instant for her departure, but it is thought the Dispositions for her Journey can hardly be made so soon. Mareschal Daun came hither two Days ago to wait on the Empress, and the next Morning he set out for his Government of Naples. The Marquis de Clerici, President of the Treasury here, who was sent for to Vienna some Months ago, to give an account of his Administration, is returned hither, and reinstated in his Employment, having fully cleared himself of the malversation laid to his Charge. The Dutch Minister here, hath received Orders to make the necessary Dispoptions for the Transport of the Troops in Pay of the States General, from Catalonia to Genoa, and he is accordingly sending directions to that Purpose. It is said they amount to Five thousand Men. The Recruits from Tirol for five Imperial Regiments of Foot, having performed their Quarentine, passed through the Venetian Territories, and are arrived in this Country.

Berlin, May 6. N. S. The King came to Town last Week, and on Sunday after Chappel, his Majesty gave Audience to Count Schonborn and Count Denhoff, Ministers of the Emperor and King Augustus, as also to the Ministers of several Princes of the Empire, who were sent to Congratulate his Majesty upon his accession to the Throne. The Funeral of the late King was performed on the 2d, with great Pomp, and the next Day his Majesty went again into the Country. Yesterday the Queen was deliver'd of a Princess.

Hanover, May 9. N. S. Two Days ago an Express was dispatch'd to General Bulau, with Orders for his Electoral Highness's Troops in the Low Countries to March towards the Upper Rhine. The Elector hath sent a Gentleman of his Bedchamber to Compliment the Empress upon her arrival in Germany. Her Imperial Majesty having writ to the Duke of Wolfenbuttle, her Grandfather, that she desired to meet him at Bolsano; his Highness is set out from Brunswick with a small Retinue. The Muscovite and Polish Envoys at this Court, are gone to Leipsick, where King Augustus is expected in a short time from Warsaw. The Emperor's Troops, consisting of nine Squadrons of Horse and Dragoons, that were quartered in the Diocese of Hildesheim, are marching towards the Upper Rhine. We have receiv'd advice from Husum, that the Swedes abandon'd all their Posts at the approach of the Confederate Army, and entrench'd themselves under the Cannon of Tonningen. Upon their Retreat, the Allies drew so near the Place, that it is thought they may be able to Bombard it, and Yesterday's Letters bring an Account that every thing was ready for putting this Design in Execution, tho' the Misunderstanding still continues between the King of Denmark and Prince Menzikoff.

Hamburgh, May 12. N. S. We have received advice from Holstein, that as soon as the Allies had finish'd their Batteries before Tonningen, and planted their Cannon and Mortars upon them, Count Steinbock sent an Officer to desire another Truce, which was granted him till the 10th Instant. On the 9th, the Count went himself to Oldensword, in order to treat again with the Generals Scholten, Flemming and Menzikoff, who met him at that Place. Baron Goertz is returned from Husum, and to Morrow he intends to set out for Hanover. The King of Denmark hath sent Letters to all his Ministers in Foreign Courts, informing them of the Reasons why he would no longer admit the said Baron to the Conferences that were held with the Swedes, adding that he had ordered him to be gone from his Court, becaufe he only embroiled Matters, while he pretended to interpose. Letters from Berlin bring an account, that the King of Prussia continues to maintain at least Fifty thousand Men.
